

On the occasion of the 21st Vis East International Commercial Arbitration Moot Orals Week, you are cordially invited to an informal gathering of Hong Kong's ArbitralWomen and ArbitralWomen visiting from abroad for the Moot!

If you are an  member, or have been one, or are interested in becoming one, you are most welcome to attend.

First, a brief welcome and update on ArbitralWomen's impressive panoply of activities and events to promote women in arbitration around the world.

Then we'll have a brief conversation about the state of gender parity and indulge in a drink and canapes while sharing our reactions with old friends and new ones.

Although most AW events are open to the public, this gathering is open only for women working in the field of arbitration. AW does not have student members.
