His experience includes infrastructure, construction, energy and natural resources, corporate, merger and acquisition, disputes involving tech companies, disputes involving cryptocurrency entities, life sciences, international trade, investment, and commodities disputes. Most of his work is as counsel and mediation advocate. However he has been appointed four times as a sole arbitrator by SIAC and ICC while nominated as an emergency arbitrator twice by ICC and SIAC. He is on the SIAC Reserve Panel of Arbitrators, HKIAC List of Arbitrators, and JCAA Panel of Arbitrators. He is an accredited mediator with over 50 sole or co-mediator appointments in the United States and Singapore. He is a SIMI Accredited Mediator (Level 2). He is also an accredited mediator in Hong Kong and France.

Prof. CHESTER BROWN SC

Professor, University of Sydney I
Barrister, 7 Wentworth Selborne Chambers

Professor Chester Brown SC is Professor of International Law and International Arbitration at the University of Sydney Law School. He is also a Barrister (Senior Counsel) at 7 Wentworth Selborne Chambers, Sydney, and an Overseas Member of Essex Court Chambers, London. He teaches, researches, and practices in the fields of public international law, international dispute settlement, international arbitration, international investment law, and private international law. He has been involved as counsel, expert, and arbitrator in various proceedings, including before the International Court of Justice, the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal, inter-State and investor-State tribunals, as well as in inter-State conciliation proceedings, international commercial arbitrations, and domestic court proceedings which have an international law element, including arbitration-related court applications.

Ms. FRANCESCA BORIO

Senior Associate, Walder Wyss I
Co-Chair, Swiss Very Young Arbitration Practitioners

Francesca Borio is a senior associate in the disputes team of Walder Wyss in Zurich. She advises and represents clients in domestic and international arbitration proceedings, before state courts and in enforcement proceedings and legal assistance matters. Her expertise covers complex cases involving multiple jurisdictions, authorities and languages. Her practice encompasses a wide range of commercial disputes, with a particular focus on contract, construction and corporate law. She has acted as counsel and tribunal secretary in both institutional arbitrations (including Swiss Rules, ICC and WIPO) and ad hoc arbitrations. In 2024, she also gained further experience at a major commercial law firm in Milan, Italy. She is currently Co-Chair of the Swiss Very Young Arbitration Practitioners and Regional Coordinator for Switzerland of the Italian below40 Arbitration Association (AA40). She also coached the University of Zurich team in the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot.

Ms. LUISA CALADO ALMENDRA

Legal Counsel, TOMRA Recycling

Luisa Calado Almendra is a Brazilian-qualified lawyer with over eight years of experience in commercial arbitration, complex litigation, and corporate advisory work. She currently serves as Legal Counsel at TOMRA Recycling, a global leader in circular economy and resource optimization technologies, where she advises on commercial and compliance matters across multiple jurisdictions. Luisa holds a Master of Law and Business (MLB) from Bucerius Law School in Hamburg, and a Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) from Pontifical Catholic University of São Paulo. Before joining TOMRA, Luisa practiced as an Arbitration Associate at Eliana Baraldi Advogados in São Paulo, representing clients and acting as secretary of arbitral tribunals in high-stakes M&A, construction, and shareholder disputes. An active contributor to the academic and moot court communities, Luisa has coached the Pontifical Catholic University of São Paulo Team for several years, guiding students to outstanding results in the Willem C. Vis Moot.
